The players have gone back to their respective colleges, the blue and the orange and black decdisappeared from the streets, an echo remains of the finest footin the history of college sports. Athletic Club Committee is straightening up its financial affairs, official returns will probably be on Monday. The receipts will amount about $42,000, and the expenses between $10,000 and $12,000. Of this amount $6,000 rental was paid the grounds, and the remainder will go for advertising, stationery, printing and other expenses. Each college will receive in the neighborhood of $15,000. But this $42,000 will repreonly in part the actual money paid by the ablic to witness the game. So many tickets fell to the hands of speculators that these leeches reaped a fortune. Most of the collegians have left the city, and the Nineteenth Precinct has relapsed into its nornal condition. jured than was at first thought, and the innitable pluck he displayed in playing out the game shows from what sort of stuff modern athletes are made. He was attended by a physician a good part of Thursday night, and he es delirious, believing that he was back again in the thick of the fight in that memorable struggle. Hinkey's injury was caused by his head and head collision with Blake, the Princeton fullback. Only one similar accident has occurred hereabouts. In a basebail game at Eastern Fark two years ago. Burns and Collins, of the Brooklyns, had just such a collision. Collins was carried from the field, and while he recovered physically, his mind wandered at times. He lived several months and eventually died, his death resulting directly from that accidental collision with Burns, the present right-fielder of the Brooklyn nine. When Hinkey started for New-Haven at 3 o'clock yesterday it was announced that his injury was confined entirely to the cut in his scalp.

The Princeton men are not so badly shaken up, and their superty physical condition reflects credit upon "Scotty" McMasters, their trainer. Captain Trenchard and his trusty lieutenant, King, were the herces of the hour. This is King's last year in college, and Old Nassau will lose the greatest quarterback she has ever had. Trenchard is certain to be re-elected captain of the Princeton team. There is no chance of Princeton and Harvard meeting this year, although such a battle would draw a tremendous crowd.

The last college game of any local importance again in the thick of the fight in that memorable game of any local importance Fordham to-day a tremendous crowd.

The last college game of any local importance will be played at Fordham to-day, between the Lafayette and Fordham College teams. The teams are fairly well matched, and an interesting game should result. The elevens will line up at 2 p. m. New-Haven, Dec. 1 (Special).—Frank A. Hinkey, Yale's football captain, who was reported dangerously injured in yesterday's game with Princeton, was seen in his room to-night. His head is covered with bandages, but he sat up and talked freely. He says the injury received in the collision with Blake is only a flesh wound, which required several stitches taken in it. He will be out of doors in a short time. He added that the entire team, so far as he knew, were in good condition, although only Murphy and Butterworth, beside Captain Hinkey, had returned this evening. Hinkey said that Princeton won squarely enough, but that Yale hoped to do better next time. He admitted, however, that Yale's men were not in as good physical condition as was desirable, owing to the fact that the hard game with Harvard had taken place only four days before.

YALE AND HARVARD FRESHMEN PLAY TO-

New-Haven, Conn., Dec. 1 (Special).-The annual Yale-Harvard freshmen football game takes place at the Yale Field to-morrow, and a large crowd will be present. Arthur De Witt Cochrane, of New-York City, was elected temporary captain in Sep-tember. He retained command of the freshmen Clarence M. Finke, of Brooklyn, who was appointed Clarence M. Finke, of Brooklyn, who was appointed permanent captain. Finke has been playing substitute on the university team and has failed to give as much attention to his class team as was desirable. Only a single member of the Yale freshman team has played on the university eleven this season—Murphy—and he was so badly used up in the game at New-York against Princeton that he will be unable to give satisfaction to-morrow. The Harvard management protested J. M. Brown and A. De Witt Cochrane, alleging that both were freshmen last year, and the Yale management will not play these men. The betting is 2 to 1 in favor of Harvard.

prominent alumni are expected to speak. Princeton's victory over Yale was exactly what was expected here. As for a game with Harvard this year, it is considered ridiculous that any such proposition should have been made. The eleven went out of training last alight.

The re-election of "Doggie" Trenchard to the captaincy is a toregone conclusion. The majority of the Princeton team will take another round with Yale next year. Trenchard Brown, Holly, Ward, Wheeler and Taylor are members of the fundor class and have another year before graduation. Lea and Morse are sophomores. Balliet is a special engineering student, and may possibly return. King is a post-graduate, and will take the Master's degree in June. It is not probable that he will return. Blake graduates with the present senior class. He is undecided about taking another year. The majority of the substitutes are underclassmen.

on the fanciful reports that were written of the Yale-Pennsylvania game. It has been published far and wide that when Knipe made his famous touchdown Hinkey, of Yale, lost his temper and struck the Philadelphian full in the face.

"Hinkey never struck me or even made a pass at me." said Knipe, "and the story was manufactured out of whole cloth. It is just such rot as this that is creating so much talk about the brutality of football. Its influence is especially great upon the parents of the players."

"Did you ever hear a more ridiculous story than the one about the marks of teeth on Butterworth's back?" continued the Pennsylvania player. "Why, you might as well try to bite a piece out of the paim of your hand. A man's facial anatomy precludes the possibility of such a thing."

AUGUST BELMONT SURE OF RE-ELECTION. Friends of the administration of the New-York thletic Club laugh at the idea that there will be any serious clash between opposing factions over the coming election. They maintain that August Belmont will certainly be re-elected president, at Belmont will certainly be re-elected president, at the earnest solicitation of the best element in the club. Mr. Belmont has filled the office in a thoroughly dignified and praiseworthy manner. If there is any opposition at all to the regular ticket it will be directed against the minor officials. About a month ago the New-York Athletic Club decided to present a gymnasium outfit to the cruiser New-York. A subscription was started and the needed money was quickly secured. The officers of the club and the Board of Governors will visit the Navy Yard on Monday, when the formal presentation will be made.

Frank Albert, amateur runner, will be a dangerous competitor. Edward Reading, the Port Omaha soldier, is said to be in fine 10rm and good enough to win. The other entries are: Dawson Formalt, of Harrisburg, Penn.; William Breckenridge, of Milwaukee, Wis.; John S. Brooks, of Blossburg, Penn.; H. W. Bremer, of Lyons, Long M. R. Washington, Dec. 1 .- A cold wave struck the cidedly uncomfortable for spectators. There were two sensational features. Eloroy finished winner second race, but he swerved in the final sixteenth, fouling Milt Young, and he was promptly disqualified. In the handicap Starter McCann, after waiting twenty-three minutes at the post, sent the field off in bad shape, Sirocco and Annie Bishop, the favorites, being among the half dozen left at the post. Some of the bookmakers who had bet considerable on these horses were so disgusted that they closed their stands and quit doing business. The experiment of giving a boxing tournament at popular prices will be tried by the American Athletic Club in January. The general admission will be 50 cents and reserved seats at a nominal increase. The boxing will be governed by the A. A. U. rules, and the co-operation of the leading athletic clubs has been assured. The weights in the various classes will be 110 pounds, 120 pounds, 135 pounds, 145 pounds, and 158 pounds. Lenox Lyceum has been secured, and as the contests will be between amateurs no interference from the authorities is anticipated.

MR. THACHER ON WORLD'S FAIR AWARDS.

BUREAU OF WHICH HE WAS HEAD.

Albany, Dec. 1 .- John Boyd Thacher, chairman of the Executive Committee on Awards at the World's Columbian Exposition, has returned to his the opposition which was manifested toward hi system of awards, he consented to talk, for the first time since he assumed his duties at Chicago six months ago, and for the first time since he experienced any such antagonism. He said:

bility for the system, there is really nothing in it, since it is practically the system which was in sion decided in November, 1890, that this system should go into operation; and Congress provided Clarence M. Finke, of Brooklyn, who was appointed permanent captain. Finke has been playing substitute on the university team and has failed to give as much attention to his class team as was desirable. Only a single member of the Yale freshman team has played on the university eleven this season—Murphy—and he was so badly used up in the game at New-York against Princeton that he will be unable to give satisfaction to-morrow. The betting is 2 to 1 in favor of Harvard.

Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 1 (Special).—The Harvard freshman eleven left here for New-Haven to-day to do battle with the Yale freshmen. Since this annual contest was established in 1876, stateen games have been played, of which eight have been won by Harvard, five by Yale, and three have been tied. The eleven to-day feit confident of victory. Wrightington and Duniop, halfback, is a University substitute. Stevenson, the captain and right end, was another regular on the list eleven. Comortackle, and Shea, centre, were substitutes.

PRINCETON TO CELEBRATE ON MONDAY NIGHT.

Princeton, N. J., Dec. 1 (Special).—Princeton will reserve her jubilee until Monday night, although the students who returned here last night had an impromptu celebration. Brass bands and prominent alumni are expected to speak. Princeton's victory over Yale was exactly what was expected here. As for a game with Harvard this for bro.ze medals alone, thus precluding a system of graded awards such as gold and silver medals.

WRONGS OF THE NEGRO RACE.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED AT THE AFRO-AMERICAN CONVENTION IN CINCINNATI.

Afro-American National Association J. J. Jones, of Pennsylvania, chairman of the Committee on Per-report, which was adopted, says, in part:

We denounce the equally criminal, inhuman, degrading, e-wardly resort to lynch lawlessness that has descended so low in the depth of its barbarity as to offer to the gaze of the American people, more, even to the people of the civilized world, the awful spectacle of the burning alive, under hellish tortures, of a human being.

We hopefully recognize the fact that the lynch mob in any locality represents but a small percent of the inhabitants of the community, and that the course of lawless murder is always regretted by the better-thinking classes.

A resolution against the separate coach law was also adopted.

STREET GANGS HAVE A FREE FIGHT.

POLICE RESERVES CALLED OUT TO QUIET BRAWL-ERS ON THE WEST SIDE-TWENTY-SIX ARRESTED.

The Tenth and Eleventh ave. "gangs" fought flercely yesterday afternoon, demolished hundreds of dollars' worth of property, and frightened many peace-loving citizens on the west side of the city. The police reserves had to be called out to restore quiet. The gangs, composed of boys and young men who live within the district bounded by Tenth and Eleventh aves, and Fifty-third and Fiftyeighth sts., have about 150 members. A jealous rivalry has existed between the members as to their fighting qualities. On Thursday afternoon a member of the Eleventh-their fighting qualities.

On Thursday afternoon a member of the Eleventhave, gang struck a smaller boy of the rival gang, and the result was the outbreak yesterday. The full strength of the two gangs came together on the corner of Fifty-third-st, and Eleventh-ave. Every boy carried some sort of missile, and the air was filled with the flying stones. Then the combatants came to a hand-to-hand fight. Many of the boys, when injured and seeking refuge in their homes, were followed by others, who smashed windows, broke in doors and smashed furniture to pieces.

Captain Schmittberger, of the West Forty-seventh-st, police station, immediately called out the reserves, and arrived on the scene as the two policemen on post were faring badly at the hands of the mob. The reserves finally succeeded in arresting twenty-six of the offenders. They were arraigned at the Yorkville Police Court. Among the complainants were the superintendent of a row of flats in Fifty-second-st.: Mr. Allaire, Dr. Schoeler, of No. 311 West Forty-eighth-st., who had been hit with a brick; H. Dowling, of Dowling Brothers, liquor dealers at Tenth-ave, and Fifty-third-st. whose large plate glass window was smashed, and a boy, whose name could not be learned, who had his head badly gashed. Two or three of the fighters were sent to Bellevus Hospital. Each of the offenders was fined to

ITEMS OF PERSONAL INTEREST TO CHURCH PEOPLE.

Every religious paper last week contained an appreciative editorial notice of the work of Dr. Charles F. Deems, for nearly thirty years the pas-tor of the Church of the Strangers in this city. Though a member of no denomination, he was the friend of all religious bodies, and now that he has laid down his work all men unite in honoring his memory. But this was not delayed until his death. could accomplish in New-York he became the recipient of not a few appreciative letters from men high in public life, as well as the dwellers in humble tenement homes, telling of the personal help which had been received from him. Happy is that pastor who has made the day brighter for one individual; far more happy still is he who has the faculty of making all with whom he comes into contact carry more easily the burdens assigned to them. Such a man was Dr. Deems, the eloquent preacher, the faithful pastor, the popular lecturer, the genial philosopher, the helpful friend.

The University of the Pacific Northwest, at Seattle, Wash., seems to be assured. President Stew-art, of Whitworth College, and Dr. Alison, of Seattle, have already secured more than one-fourth of the $50,000 needed to secure the 200 acres of land in Seattle. Their address for further contributors Gospel Mission to the Tombs has issued an appeal for $900 that it may close the year free from debt. Dr. William M. Taylor, of the Broadway Tabernacle, is president of the Mission; the Sidney G. Law, chaplain; E. L. Lentilhon, secretary, and George E. Sterry, of No. 79 Pine-st., treasurer. The circular signed by Dr. Taylor says of this Mission: "It is a work whose importance Christians will not question; and its support rests entirely with them, there being no provision entirely with them, there can be a with them made by the State for preaching the Gospel to the many thousands who pass through the Tombs every year." A work so worthy as this should not suffer for the little that is requested by the committee. This work was begun sixteen years ago when Dr. Crosby became president of the society, and it is carried on with great economy.

and also in engravings, and in printing and binding

As the work enlarged upon his hands and new doors opened he felt constrained to call upon the churches for financial help to meet the increasing expenses which it involved. In acknowledging the receipt of $1,264.90 from all the churches that responded, he says: "I would assure the givers that the money has been well in-vested in the work that God has greatly blessed with immediate results, and which gives promise of a hundred-fold increase as the days go by."

THE EXPECTED BRAZILIAN SEA FIGHT.

AN INSTRUCTIVE OCCASION. From The Philadelphia Record.

From The Philadelphia Record.

A naval conflict between these vessels would be full of instruction to the navies of the world, since it might decide beyond any doubtful possibility the relative value of specially designed fighting ships as compared with strongly armed floating batteries improvised from the most convenient merchant steamer. Both vessels appear to be ready and anxious for the encounter, and the outcome will be awaited with more than ordinary interest.

A DECISIVE BATTLE WANTED, From The Boston Globe. There is prospect of a great naval battle off the coast of Brazil, they say. Let us hope it will settle the Peixoto-Melio difficulty, one way or another.

THE ADMIRAL HAS THE ADVANTAGE. From The Evening World.

In such an encounter it is likely that the Admiral would have the advantage. The Aquidaban is a powerful battleship, and has, no doubt, a more experienced and better-trained crew than will be found on the American vessels. So that at the present moment the advantage seems to lie with the insurgents, although the accounts received from Brazil must all be received with a certain degree of allowance.

BYSTANDERS MUST BEWARE.

From The Hartford Courant.

The story that Admiral Melio has hurriedly started northward with a nortion of his fleet to intercept President Peixoto's improvised warships may be true and may not. If it is true, and if they meet, and if a sea fight ensues, it is sincerely to be hoped that there may be no innocent maritime bystanders within range. Brazilian gunnery is more remarkable for enthusiasm and eccentricity than for accuracy. From The Hartford Courant.

LET AMERICANS STAND BY THE REPUBLIC. From The Brooklyn Standard-Union. From The Brooklyn Standard-Union.

This country is naturally interested in the success of the Brazilian Republic, and our people should be very careful about too readily accepting stories to the dispredit of our younger sister, who is doing her best to sustain the glorious idea of popular government. Those who are familiar with the country describe the Brazilians generally as more peaceable and orderly, and more conservative, than the run of South American people, the them in their republicanism. Let American stand by Brazil.

CONFERRING ON THE SPEAKERSHIP. PROBABLE ACTION OF WESTERN NEW-YORK'S ASSEMBLYMEN-A STRONG LEANING TOWARD MALBY.

Buffalo, Dec. 1 (Special).-Western New-York's Republican Senators and Assemblymen-elect held conference here to-night. Those present were Senators Lamy and Persons, of Erie; Pound, of Niagara, and Higgins, of Cattaraugus; and all the Assemblymen from the Republican counties in this end of the State. Several hours were spent in formal conference over the candidates for Speaker in formal conference over the candidates for Speaker and the other officers to be chosen at the organization. Assemblyman James M. E. O'Grady, of Rochester, has some strong friends among the Assemblymen-elect, and it is a question if they do not support him in preference to either Mr. Malby or Mr. Fish. Mr. Malby is expected here for a conference soon. The Assemblymen did not decide to-night about the Speakership. If they go solidly to O'Grady, the Rochester candidate will have between twenty-five and thirty votes in the Republican caucus. Among the country Assemblymen, however, there is a strong leaning toward Malby.

Republican caucus. Among the country Assemblymen, however, there is a strong leaning toward Malby.

The Clerkship was also discussed, and Charles A. Orr, of this city, is likely to enter the caucus with nearly the solid support of Western New-York. Mr. Orr has, also, a good many assurances of support from the middle and eastern parts of the State, and is regarded here as a winning candidate. The section has candidates for other places, and it is this fact which causes the delay in settling upon the action to be taken. The Eric County delegation will, however, go over the whole ground in the coming two weeks, and will determine finally before going to Albany what they will ask of the caucus in recognition of the 10,000 plurality given the Republican State ticket in Eric County last month.

NO MORE DEMOCRATS WANTED.

A PROTEST AGAINST THE CONFIRMATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF J. F. CONNELLY AS

CONTROLLER OF NEWARK. James F. Connelly was reappointed City Controller of Newark by Mayor Haines last night, and was confirmed by the Common Council. Connelly is a Democrat, and is the present incumbent of the office. The term is for three years.

There was a lively discussion over the confirma-tion of the appointment. Alderman Stainsby, tion of the appointment. Alderman Stainsby, Republican, opposed the motion to confirm in a most emphatic manner, declaring that the voice of the people at the recent election showed that they had had enough of Democratic administration, and demanded a change. He said the next Mayor would undoubtedly be a Republican, and if the nomination were held open until April Mr. Connelly's successor would be Republican. After the vote was taken he denounced some of the Republicans who voted to confirm the appointment as traitors.

UNION COUNTY DEMOCRATS DISCOURAGED. A second attempt was made last night by the on County Democrats to get together and put their shattered forces in shape for next year's Contheir shattered forces in shape for next year's Congressional election. The call for the meeting was sent out by James E. Martine, who was so decisively beaten in his race for State Senator. The meeting was held at the rooms of the Union County Democratic Society, but from appearances it did not promise to be any more successful than that held last week at the Sheridan House, where not one-sixth of the leaders appeared. Assemblyman Lane, Editor of "The Orange Herald" and "Summit Record," is also engaged in an effort to unite the party, and has sent circulars to all the leading Democrats in the county asking their views as to the best way to do so.

As has aircady been announced the Senator expects to meet Senator Murohy, Lieutenant-Governor Sheehan and Richard Croker, to confer upon the deplorable situation of the State machine, and if possible devise ways and means for "getting out of the hole." How to fight the Anti-Snappers and what to do about the proposition to steal the State Senate again are the questions, it is understood, that are to be met. # PEOPLE ECONOMIZING.

It Is Proper and Right .- A Valuable Suggestion on the Subject for All House-

This remark was made by a leading American banker in conversation with the writer.

"This remarks was made by a leading American banker in conversation with the writer.

This economy must extend not the necessities of life and the requirements of hostib. When men or women are weak and depressed, or have the first symptoms of a cold, of a sickness, let it be pneumonia or any other disease, they can and should save a probable large future expense by conderacting instantly the first symptoms of such troubles. If people feel a chill, they should at once take some exhmitant to overcome it. In this way they will not only save expense, but possibly a long lillness which hoight ensue did they not take instant mensures to prevent. Nothing can so quickly, so certainly accomplists this as the great midicinal whiskey known as Duity's Pure Mait. Its action is quick and complete; it counteracts the first approach of any description of cold and keeps disease at bay. The best classes of the community use its constantly it is put up in large size bottles and in addition to its superior quality, furnishes a greater quantity them any other medicinal simulant in the market. It is true certain desiens often seek to seil ordinary whisties, claiming they are just as good, but those who are well versed are never acceived, and insist upon having the only pure medicinal preparation of the kind known to the world."

BUSINESS AT THE EXCHANGES.

The bad weather, following on a public holiday, somewhat checked business in the real estate market yesterday. One of the most encouraging features has been the steady demand for private ouses, a sure sign of returning confidence. Bennett & Graff have bought for Judge Sedgwick, of the Superior Court, for Livingston & Dunn, builders, No. 337 West Eighty-seventh-st., a four-story lime and pressed brick residence, plot 19x58x108.8, on pri-vate terms.

Charles Buerman & Co. have sold for Henry Charles Buerman & To. have sold for Henry Buerman three lots in Jay-ave., Maspeth, L. I., 75x100. to John Deissner, for $750.
Henry D. Winans & May report the sale of Mo. 7 East Seventy-fourth-st., for J. V. S. Wooley, at $71,000. to E. C. Bodman. This is a duplicate house to the one purchased by Richard Croker, size 25 feet, with dining-room and bedroom extension, a modern first-class house.
President Read is expected back from his vacation early next week.
The tendency toward easter money is becoming more marked every day. One result of this is the large number of foreclosure sales now withdrawn, the defendants being able to replace the loans elsewhere.
There were no auction sales advertised yesterday at either exchange.
